THE LEYTON
STAR

A TOP OF THE LEAGUE EAST END PUB

Opened in 1887, The Leyton Star is one of the oldest pubs in Leyton and East London. Originally known as 'The Grenadier' and more latterly 'The King Harold', the pub was reopened after a complete renovation in 2016 with a contemporary look.

The pub features a versatile function room, known as the Gold Room, a Karaoke room and a large garden courtyard. Our main floor is equipped with screens all around for maximum viewing, complemented by a large projector for an immersive experience. And for those glorious summer days, step into our garden, where additional screens await so you don't miss a single goal, point, or finish.

The pub boasts the best in live TV sport almost every day of the week. That on top of a fantastic food, cocktails, and craft beer.
